Aim of the course:

This course aims to provide an analytical but practical approach to the subject area of marketing management in an international context. The course will equip students with the skills and competences required to analyse and solve marketing problems relating to both individual consumers and business-to-business customers. The problem-solving approach covers areas such as customer roles, customer attitudes and behaviours; segmentation; marketing research methods; marketing communications; and distribution. The course is delivered in an international setting and illustrated with cases.

Teaching methods:

Lecture with class discussion and students presentations, also case studies
