

Course: International Economics		ECTS Points: 3
Course Code: 0300-ES2-1EMI#e
Language: English
Course description: major
Lecturer: Dr Agnieszka Piekutowska
Semester: winter /summer		Number of hours: 30 Lecture: 30 Classes: -
Courses to be completed before enrollment to the course: no prerequisites
Substantive content
Lectures		Number of Hours
1. New theories of trade and contemporary international division of labor and international trade		3
2. Theoretical foundations of international flows of factors of production		3
3. External balance in modern economies		3
4. International financial markets		3
5. International trade policy		3
6. International movement of labour		3
7. Economic integration		3
8. Trade in services		3
9. The role of foreign direct investment in the economic development of countries		3
10. Emerging economies		3
Aim of the course: The main aim of the course is to provide students with knowledge of contemporary concepts of specialization and international production, trade and industrial policy and the motives and consequences of foreign direct investments. Direct investments in the context of economic development, state activity to raise capital, international labour flows and human capital will be also the subject of the analysis.
Teaching methods: A traditional lecture conducted with the use of multimedia presentations together with discussion within a group.
Literature: 1. R. J. Carbaugh, International Economics. 15 th edition, Boston, Cengage Learning 2015. 2. C. Van Marrewijk , International economics : theory, application, and policy, New York : Oxford University Press, 2012.
Forms and conditions of credit: oral exam		